

The Age, Epicure

ODDBINS

Tuesday 15 April 2008

---

Simply the best

If wine matters, indulge yourself and head to MacPhee's in South Melbourne.

Upstairs caters for your cellar needs. Downstairs is part gallery, part emporium – a modern open-plan retail space filled with beautifully designed wine accessories. You will find Riedel crystal glassware. Is there any other? Exquisite classic and contemporary L'Orfevriere d'Anjou champagne buckets share shelf space with stylish leather wine carriers, L'Atelier du Vin decanter drying racks and antique corkscrews.

Lithographs and vintage posters adorn the walls – all for sale of course. Sommelier and store manager Scott Irving is on hand for advice, and gift-wrapping is part of the terroir.

MacPhee's, 249 Coventry Street, South Melbourne, opens Monday-Friday 10am-5pm, weekends 10am-4pm, phone 9696 2300.

MICHELLE POTTS